

LOOKING BACK: The Best of Glenn Tunney

VOLUME FIVE

The final volume is here! Overflowing as were its predecessors with fascinating stories, rare photographs, and delightful conversations, you'll find yourself wanting more when you turn the last page of this final book in the popular LOOKING BACK series.

For lovers of local history, the remarkable 1,500-page five-volume LOOKING BACK set of books has been a nostalgic feast. The books have brought to life an amazing array of unforgettable characters and memorable events from Brownsville's "good old days."

These five books are destined to become an heirloom set passed on to future generations, providing the most comprehensive record ever published of Brownsville's "golden era." Volume Five brings this series to a rousing close with stories such as these:

- Skyscrapers and Chipped Ham: Remembering Isaly's in Brownsville
- The Jackson House: Sharing with The Captain
- A Special Season in Brownsville: Sharing Christmas Memories
- Working in Mysterious Ways: A Tale of Two Churches
- Looking Back with Gus Cardarelli
- A Dark Day in Brownsville: The Twin Disasters of April 6, 1931
- Coal Miner Poet: A Life Laid Out in Verse
- The Mystery of the Plaza Organ: Bringing a Treasure Back to Life
- Discovered in a Dark Closet: Fading Town Records Restored
- Looking Back with Bill Griffith
- Fun on the Ice! Ice Skating in the Good Old Days
- The Untold Story of Davey Jones: Brownsville's Ring-a-Bell Man
- It's Race Day! The Orange Crate Derby
- Mistaken and Misbegotten: A Tale of Troubled Tombstones
- Looking Back with Jack Purcell
- Brownsville's Inventor Genius: The Story of Elisha Gray
- Morning Worship, Quiet Afternoons: When Sundays Were Different
- A Walk through the Neck: Remembering the Past, Eying the Future
- Peering into the Past: Images of a Bygone Era
- My Final Column: Reflections on Writing about Brownsville

$19.95

ISBN 978-0-9828793-4-4

5 1 9 9 5